A CENTENNIAL REMEMBRANCE

"THE MOUNT"
T SAINT JOSEPH ACADEMY
RUTLAND, VERMONT

Letter from the Principal

Dear Class of 2013,

It is with a deep sense of pride and affection that I bid you farewell. I have come to know many of you as individuals in various aspects of school life. I have come to know the unique characteristics and accomplishments that make you the admirable young adults you are today.

Throughout your years at Mount St. Joseph Academy it has been our major purpose to help you grow into intelligent, compassionate and responsible citizens. It has been our mission to prepare you to be people of service, who love and serve our Lord. Our emphasis has always been to develop in you the necessary skills that you will need for a sound educational foundation. This foundation will not only serve you well in your pursuit for higher education, but will be of advantage to you in your social and professional endeavors. Each of your teachers has had much to offer you. They have contributed and influenced your spiritual, intellectual, social and emotional growth. You have the necessary tools to get the job done. I have no doubt that you will carry on in the tradition of the thousands of MSJ students who preceded you and have been productive members of our society, no matter what their walk of life.

I have one solemn wish for you: Live your lives in such a way that you will reflect credit upon yourselves, your parents and your community. I echo the wishes of all our faculty when I say to you good luck and may God bless you abundantly.

MSJ is your home. We welcome you, always. Visit often.

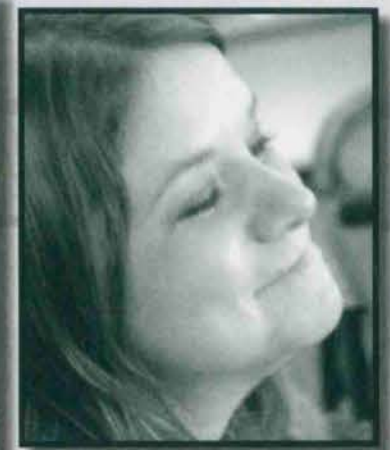

Once a Mountie, always a Mountie!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Wilkes

Dedication

Mrs. Fortier has served MSJ in many different ways. She is a teacher, the Student Government adviser, Project Help moderator, the Women's Soccer Coach and on top of everything else- the Dean. She is known as one of the best teachers in the school, and is often a favorite among her students. Mrs. Fortier has also spent an abundance of time being the Student Government adviser. She always tells this group the reasoning behind why a certain rule cannot be changed, and really tries to help our students have a voice in the operation of this school. Along with this she is the Project Help moderator, one of the most important community service projects MSJ executes. This project feeds the neediest among the Rutland Region, and Mrs. Fortier has been an asset to this program for the past several years. Her compassion is also shown in her role as the Women's Soccer Coach. She has spent ample time coaching her team which made playoffs this season. Also, during this time, she was named as the MVL Coach of the Year. Mrs. Fortier is also a dedicated and compassionate Dean of Students. She is an alumni of this school, class of 1999; she understands what kind of school MSJ is. She disciplines with support and understanding, which actually prevents students from repeating their same mistakes. Mrs. Fortier is an asset to this Academy and we, the students, faculty, and staff, are fortunate to have her as part of our community.

This is for you, Mrs. Fortier.

After four years of study and activity at the Mount, the Seniors feel justified in their spirit of accomplishment.

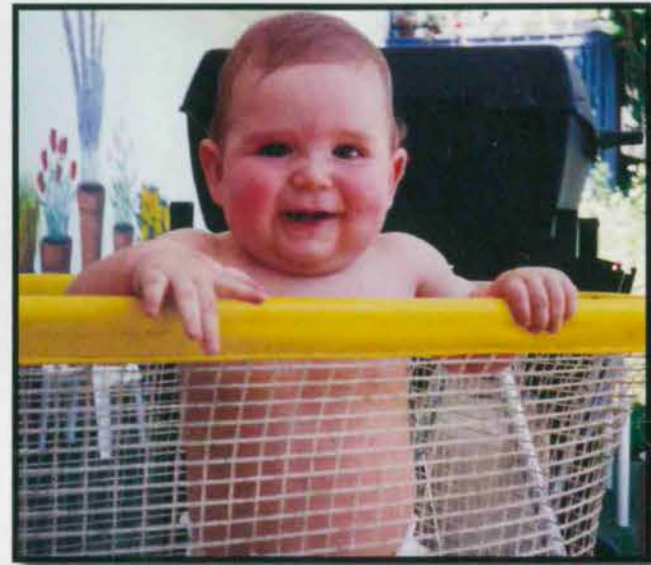

They have spent a major part of their teen years under the guidance and supervision of the M.S.J. faculty. They are now embarking on the independent life journeys for which they have been preparing. They have grown from uncertain Freshmen to serious Seniors and are now ready to put into practice the principles they have been taught.

A Senior's days are busy but they are not without thought to the generosity of his parents who have made his priceless Catholic education possible. The Senior has a spirit of pride; pride in his accomplishments, in his school, and in those benefactors who, with his parents, have made it all possible.

To Emma, my parents, take care of them. To Kit, Portal after school, Taco Bell dates, our singing and our songs, Steve Aoki, intelligent discussions, and inappropriate jokes. To Jo$h, the school, take care of it. To Bacon, the golf team, AP classes and calculator art. To Emmalee, NaNoWriMo, the baritone sax, and the internet, take care of it. To Josh Waz, Republican ideals. To Spencer, LARPing. To Peggy, I'm sort of sorry for being mean to you. Sort of. To Joe, insulting you. To Nicole, best friendship. To Grace, early morning band car rides. To Nick, Kit. To Collin, nyeh and pokemon. To Kevin, two soups. To Andrew, my saxophone playing. Wait, no, keep your own, it's better.

Thank you to my parents, for sending me to MSJ, and continuing to always support me though all of my years here. Thank you to the administration and faculty of MSJ, for guiding and educating me through my years here. Thank you all.

In ten years, I will be an English teacher, going for my doctorate so that I can teach in a college.

"For what it's worth: it's never too late or, in my case, too early to be whoever you want to be. There's no time limit, stop whenever you want. You can change or stay the same, there are no rules to this thing. We can make the best or the worst of it. I hope you make the best of it. And I hope you see things that startle you. I hope you meet people with a different point of view. I hope you live a life you're proud of. If you find that you're not, I hope you have the courage to start all over again." Eric Roth

Thank you to everyone that has helped me the past 4 years of my life. If there is one thing I have learned it is you can NEVER have enough community service hours. Continue to receive those "brownie points" and when college comes around you can finally cash in.

I, Megan Blais, leave the road trip from Mount Holly to Rutland to Josh W., Hannah F. and Jonah F. I leave the cross country team in the hands of Sally H.

In Ten Years: I will have my RN with a BS to back me up.

Jessica Bruso

"Be who you are and say what you feel, because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind" Dr. Seuss

I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to come to MSJ and for always supporting me. I would not be the person I am today without all your help. I would also like to give a special thanks to my sister, Nicole, for always making me laugh. I could not imagine getting through the last four years without you three!

Kit Hudson: Drama, the lunch table, and 20mph icy car rides in the Sebring. Emmalee Smith: Rivers Cuomo, as promised. Nick Croff: Project Help. Charlotte Hudson: Photo-ops with cardboard cutouts and being triplets with Nicole. Grace, Devon, Bethany, and Kyra: Cheering for football during the hot weather and the pouring rain. Nicole: Cranberry, the daily road trip to school, tennis, and the summer trip to London.

In Ten Years, I will be a recent medical school graduate working in a hospital. I will be doing my best to bring comfort and healing to all my patients.

"Obstacles don't have to stop you. If you run into a wall, don't turn around and give up. Figure out how to climb it, go through it, or work around it." -Michael Jordan

As a member of the MSJ community, I learned much from the people within the Academy. In many classes, and extracurricular activities I noticed that my friends were more like family. Through hardships, and strenuous work I realized that they were always there for me. Teachers would look at the individual, and not just a whole class. Teammates would stick up for me, and have my back even if I made a mistake. We not only stuck together through the bad, we also celebrated over victory together. Our basketball team won the DII state championship of the 2011-2012 season, the whole school shared that victory! MSJ is definitely one of the best experiences of my life.

I leave one thing! "Big business" to Kevin Elliott.

In ten years, I will be living out my dream. I will have graduated from a college of my choice after six years. I will then continue my pursuit in some form of psychology. Once settled down, and with the proper income, I will start my family. I will have just bought a nice house with shutters, lakeside, with a big yard, as well as a barn. I will have two dogs, a Golden Retriever, and a German Shepard. I will have a horse, and of all things, a family that sticks together.

I would like to thank my family for always believing in me and for supporting me in whatever I chose to do. I would also like to thank the MSJ community for welcoming with open arms. The people in the MSJ community truly made my last two years of high school the best years of my life. I made so many great friends and I would not change anything about my years at MSJ.

Abigail- Aggy Gaggy you're my best friend thank you for everything! I can't even put our jokes in here because it would take up too much room. Tyler - Santa Clause is coming to town, Little Bunny Foo Foo, and so many more jokes. But I'm leaving you Jill because she is going to be lonely and you will need someone to buy you gushers and Pepsi. Maggie - Madgie time is irreplaceable, paper towels, stairs. You're also one of my best friends thanks for always being there! Maggie and Claire - STB. Megan, Gwen, Claire, Sarah, Sally, Jillian, Monica and Bethany - I leave you the basketball team, you guys are going to great things in the upcoming year. Zack - I leave you Tyler to have all to yourself. Garth - You can have my lunch seat and I guess you can share Tyler with Zack.

In Ten Years-, I'll be living in Massachusetts on the beach grading High School History papers.

HOOOO!!!! Transferring to MSJ sophomore year was the best choice of my life. Hey Boys. The D.C. trip was one of the best trips I ever made with the guys. M.S. J.R. L.B. The best roommates. HOO? Senior year was no doubt the best year of my life. Hey... Boys. All my best memories were made at MSJ, too many to even describe yet I will remember them forever. My years at MSJ were the best and I would never trade them for anything. Nice collar bone. And who could forget all the Ben and Jerry's parties with everyone. A.M. E.S. M.S M.C. M.S. K.G. C.M. G.B. M.E. B.P. A.H. S.H. G.M. G.G. H. F. J.F.

Hey Ben Reardon, you can have "HOO!" Shane Protivansky you can have my collar bone.

In ten years I will be done with college and probably owning a few businesses while making a large paycheck. I will probably have a girl with me too, thats always fun.

Sars: I leave you everything MSJ. You have some pretty big shoes to fill, so get to it ;) also, take care of Baby Ty Ty. Devon, Nicole, and Bethany: I leave you our cheer team <3 all things good and bad, cheer your heart out for those Mountie Boys (and you get Tracy too :P hehe) Kyra: I leave you Sarah. You and Megan need to make sure that she doesn't go spaztic and watch out for her attitude. Claire Merc: I leave you mom. I mean mama Anne. Bring her over to the house sometimes, and COME HOME <3. Kit: you get drama. Do with it what you will, but I know you love it so much, and you will carry on our Blur legacy. Emma: Ter Ter, and the Cat Litter softball field. Henry: our 3rd period study halls, and protecting Sarah from a certain someone. Sebi: BESTFRIENDS. Zack: Freckles, and Mr Audette. I'm sure the 3 of you will be very happy together in westside <3

My amazing parents: every day I prove just how stubborn an independent, Italian/Irish teenage girl can be, you still put up with me, and love me unconditionally. Mom: Thank you for listening to stories of drama, unfair situations, and making sure that everyone was able to have the education that they deserve. Daddy: Thank you for always being the shoulder I can cry on, you see things for what they are, and you are never afraid to put a little humor in any situation. I love you Sarah and Isabelle, I hope you know that <3 You see me at my worst, between school, stress, and sports, yet you still are proud to call me your sister. Shea: We are complete opposites, yet somehow, we have so much in common. We've had our fair share of ups and downs, through everything, we are still able to laugh the next day about some ridiculous inside joke, a funny line from a movie, or a memory that we will never forget. OCBFF <333 All my friends: you mean so much to me. We've shared laughs, tears, and most definitely, memories. I love you all so much, and I couldn't have kept my sanity without you. Lastly, Zack. Without you these past two school years, I'm not sure what I would have done. You've supported me in more ways than you realize. Thank you so much <3

In ten years, I hope to be completing my residency at Dartmouth hospital, and to be living in a huge house, with my husband and my 3-5 perfect children. I will also have heard Reilly Jakubiak speak, and purchased my pet dolphin.

Mom and Dad: Thank you for everything you have done for me my entire life. I don't know what I would do without you. Thank you for raising me right and teaching me right from wrong. You taught me so many things about the world and myself that years have not been able to make me forget. There are no words or actions big enough for me to be able to express my utmost gratitude and thanks to you both. Through the good times and the bad, you have always been there for me, guiding me on the right path. Sometimes when I'm feeling down, the only thing that is able to put a smile on my face is the knowledge that I have two wonderful parents who love and care about me. You two are the best role-models and parents I could have ever asked for. Thank you for giving me your love. Thank you for everything. I am forever grateful to you. I love you <3 Thank you to my sister for everything! You are the best sister/friend ever :)

Harvey Family: I have so many memories to bring with me to college. You guys made my senior year the best year for me in high school! No words can describe how much I appreciate all that you have done for me. Thank you for everything! I had so much fun with you guys :) I will come visit next year! <3

In ten years, I will have graduated from pre-med school and will be working in a hospital as a clinical pharmacist. I will keep volunteering for my community where they need help and will go visit Africa, volunteering with my family and friends.

To all my friends who were practically my brothers (Liam, Riker, Sean, Dan) Its going to be hard leaving but i wish er' body best of luck and all dat good stuff. And I also wish Mikey LaDuc the best of luck for the rest of high school and hope he uses the nickname wisely.

I leave number 2 to Mikey Laduc, I also leave Kevin Elliot all dat chili, and I leave Nate O'Shea the power to cut his hair.

In Ten Years.....I will probably be a history professor. Or the President either one works ;)

Its a privilege to be able to say I am the fourth generation to have attended Mount Saint Joseph Academy. My parents and siblings have sacrificed so many things so that I could have the best high school experience as possible and for that I am grateful. My mom and dad deserve a huge thank you for this opportunity; without them I would not be the person I am today. Mom and Dad, you are welcome for the 17 years of attitude, drama and sass, I was just making sure I got it all in before I go off to college. You will miss it. Roahan you're not adopted, you are my biological brother and I love you. Tessa you're my everything. Even though you havelabeled me as a teen mom, I wouldn't trade you for the world. I do not know where I would be without my therapist and OCBFF, Abby; we will be enjoying Las Vegas University together and major in the language of whale. I am looking forward to college and have no regrets!

Emmalee Smith: I leave you my lunch table and cosmic brownies. Kit: I leave you Ascutney Road...if you can ever find it. Emma: I leave you Miss Jackie's kick lines in the hallways. Maggie: I leave you our peanut tree, it will grow...one day. Lincoln: I leave you our trips to McDonalds, all of the toaster strudels in my freezer, and shooting deer with Cumberland Farms straws.

In Ten Years I will be a prestigious prosecuter in New York City living like a princess in a huge house with Prince Charming himself. We will have two perfect children and a pet zebra.

If you're trying to achieve, there will be roadblocks. I've had them; everybody has had them. But obstacles don't have to stop you. If you run into a wall, don't turn around and give up. Figure out how to climb it, go through it, or work around it.

I want to say thank you to Ms.Fuller and Mrs.Fortier for making it so easy to be in another enviornment and giving me the skills to succeed in high school, and to succeed in life. Also I want to thank my Mom and Family for supporting me with everything I do. Last but not least I want to thank The Sanborns and Gilligan's my host families for taking me in and making me feel welcome for the time I was with them.

To Nate O'shea I leave him my basketball sneakers, and to David Perry I leave him the the basketball and football team with the will it takes to win. Finally I leave Devon and Bethany the motivation to be successful in life.

In ten years I will be over seas playing basketball as a professional or I will be a successful Accountant with a big house, and a loving family.

Daniel Pearson

"Enjoy the best things in your life, cuz you aint gonna get to live it twice" - Malcolm McCormick.

"Shalom!"

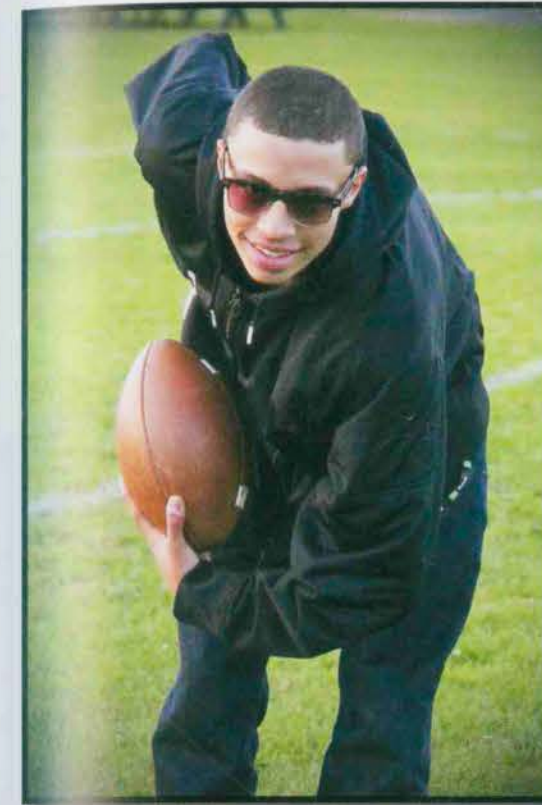

I would like to thank my Dad for sticking with me all through High School and for my Mom for when she could be there. Jacob Rice, we will always keep updated on the Broncos. Seth, we always know who the real Werner Steinholtz is.

I leave Josh Waz "Shalom Brother Dan", I leave Jared his real name Jaren. I leave Hannah and Emma 5th period study hall, I leave Kevin and Diezel the rights of the neighborhood, I leave Michael the right to wear snapbacks during school hours.

In ten years, I will be working on my next design for my clothing line and will be an owner of a snowboard shop.

Bryan Pitts

I will never forget the friends I have made at MSJ; they will stick with me forever. I don't know what I would do without them, they have helped mold me into the person that I am today and I could not thank them enough for that.

I would like to leave "pick city" to my corner friends Mike and Zack. I had a great season playing with you guys; I am going to miss it

In ten years I see myself far away from Vermont in some warm place just being happy and enjoying life.

We were never promised each day to be easy for us to get through, this is why important people come into our lives. Ms. Fuller, I could never begin to thank you enough for all that you have done for me throughout the past four years. From scaring me about writing on the desk, to chocolate chip cookies, you have always been there for me. Thank you so much for all you have done for me. Mum and Chrissy - I do not know how we made it through these years, but here we are! You both have been my rock and my support system. I know I can depend on you for anything and everything. So, here's to you both; for all you have done and continue to do for me; I love you. Lyllly - You are and always will be my best friend. All the memories we have made together over the years has made this experience so worthwhile, thank you so much. To all the other memories to come; I can't wait! I could write on and on about all of those who have helped me to get where I am today. Just know, I do acknowledge and appreciate all you have done for me. I promise to make you proud.

I leave the Shoe String Theater to all the up and coming "Soles" to be trained by Mrs. Audette and Mrs. Bagley. Emmalee S. - high fives and after school talks. Claire S. - the basketball court and pep talks. Josh W. - you already know! Henry K. - nighttime basketball. Sally H. - the paint and the #5 spot. Kit H. - the laughter of backstage. Megan E. - dreams of the Barre Auditorium. Kaitlynn P. - our laughter and memories to the lunch table. Riker - I leave our cases of senioritis; we made it. Ms. Fuller - chocolate chip cookies!

In ten years I will be finishing my trip around the world with my brother after we have won "The Amazing Race" together. I will settle down and begin the rest of my life; as a psychologist, wife, mother, and horse owner.

MSJ has taken my education to the next level. They helped me push myself and made it possible for my grades to go from mediocre to excellent. I would like to personally thank Mr. Z for always looking to brighten my day or encourage me when I first arrived here. I would like to thank Mr. Harding for teaching me valuable life lessons in music. Not only was he my music teacher but he also helped to expand my knowledge of the world of music around me. I would like to thank Mr. Piwowarski for expanding my musical knowledge and pushing me to improve myself in all aspects of my musical work ethic. Dan Pearson, hopefully the Bronco's win the superbowl by the time we read this in the yearbook, you are the only Bronco's fan I've ever known and the greatest safety in the history of MSJ football. To Matt Sanborn, Leonard Bartenstein, Bacon Smith, and Jacob Decandio I would like to say thank you for making these past two years the greatest of my life. Whether it was going to Denny's, going to DC, or being ultra conservative our legend will live on. The league of bro's will always be together in spirit even if we are far apart. Long live the Hardcore Party Boy Discount Club.

I leave the League of Bro's to Bacon Smith and I leave Nate Dog the spirit of the Wildebeest. I leave Mr. Van Bro the hard cold truth that he owns a tea farm in Sri Lanka. I leave Josh Waz an eternal Yolo. I leave Rob Dog, my little brother, a great senior year at MSJ. Finally, as founder of the league of bro's, I leave the official code of bro to Bacon Smith.

In ten years I will be traveling the world playing music!

You may live in the day as you wish. The night is reserved. The inevitable light reveals all that will happen. An inescapable element in which all people are equal. I will not dwell in the day, but only in the night. The darkness be the shroud of the unclean eccentric mind. It offers cover and comfort to the unaccepted world. These elements shape and expose who you are. While the light may produce triumph in those who live in it, the night will produce character in all whose dreams never seem to go undisturbed. Oh and OFWGKTADGAF.

I leave everything to those who are willing to take it. I leave talking to Emma. And to Sean. Oh lovely Sean. To you, I leave that one wonderful night.

In ten years I'll be livin the dream.

"The God who equipped me with strength and made my way blameless. He made my feet like the feet of a deer and set me secure on the heights. He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze." Psalm 18:32-34

These past four years, at MSJ, have been some of the greatest. I could not have imagined a better high school experience to prepare myself for college and for the rest of my life. For this, I have to thank my family and friends. With my family, they were with me every step of the way. From attending nearly every single one of my sporting events to helping me further my education, I could not have asked for a better family to rely on and to enjoy my high school experience with. For my friends, whether it be winning a basketball state championship together, competing for one for baseball, going to Denny's at night to talk about our times together, or whatever it may be, these years will stay on my mind and will never be taken for granted. To whom it may concern (and that is anyone reading this), friendship was something that was very important to me here at MSJ, and I will always value the experiences we had together.

I am leaving the Legion of Bros and the Denny's Hardcore Party-Boy Discount to Bacon and Nate, Concept of collarbones to Tyler Billings, My left collarbone to Sarah Harvey, My right collarbone to Claire Mercier, choir robes to Emma, my basketball number to Henry, core workouts to David Perry, Think Ball to Gwen, the great Sanborn reputation to Maggie, My senior year to Greg Mercier, Calculus jokes to Bacon Smith, Collarbone respect to Hannah Farrow, and transition 3's to preserve state championships to Zack Lanzillo.

In ten years I will 28 years old and still that same goofy kid I am today.

Lylly Yakunovich

insert inspirational/meaningful saying that someone else once said here* -Me, Myself, and I

I would like to thank my parents and the rest of my family for always supporting my music and I and for everything else. I would like to thank the friends I've had throughout the last few years, for making high school tolerable. I would lastly like to thank my Best Friend, Alex, for always being there and for every comedic moment in our lives and those yet to come.

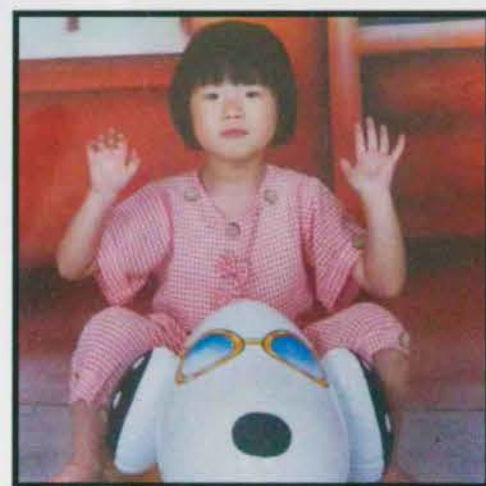

I leave Emmalee my music folder and a lint brush. I leave Andrew, Peter, and Emmalee the continuation of Morning Band. I leave Josh W with "HI!"

In Ten Years, I will be a blues/jazz artist while furthering my composing and performing. I will to be a teacher in a large school with two pugs named Otis and Merlin. I also hope to have sold a few pieces of eventual artwork.

Shuman (Sherry) Zhang

The important thing in life is to have a great aim, and the determination to attain it.

I was an exchange student in MSJ last year, I really love and enjoy my time in there, that is the main reason why I choose to finish my senior year in there. Hope MSJ spiritual will never be faded. I want to say "thank you" to Mr. Ackley's family, they are so nice and sweet, they make my life has a lot of fun! And also I want to say "thanks" to Mrs. Scaralia, she supports me a lot, I really appreciate of everything she did for me.

Thanks to all of the teachers I had my junior and senior year. I appreciate everything they did for me, they helped my a lot when I was helpless. I love my friends in my cheerleading, basketball, and tennis teams; they supported me a lot.

In ten years, I want to focus on cancer and try my best to do research on it. I also hope I can have a sweet family which can be the power of supporting me overcome every challenges what might happn in the future. In addition, I want to own a pastry store and flower store in USA, those will make me feel relaxed and satisfied with myself.
